

DECEPTIOUS

Meaning: Deceptious: intended to deceive or mislead; misleadingly deceptive.

1. The magician's deceptious tricks left the audience in awe and disbelief.
2. Her deceptious smile masked the true intentions behind her words.
3. In a world filled with deceptious advertising, it's hard to know what to trust.
4. The detective uncovered a deceptious plot woven into the fabric of the town's history.
5. His deceptious charm often led people to overlook his questionable ethics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deceptious>