

DECEPTORY

Meaning: Deceptory: intended to deceive or misleading in appearance or intention.

1. The magician's tricks were so deceptory that even the most skeptical audience members were left in awe.
2. Her deceptory smile hid the true intentions behind her words.
3. In a world filled with deceptory advertisements, consumers must remain vigilant to avoid being misled.
4. The novel's plot twist revealed the deceptory nature of the protagonist's actions.
5. He quickly learned that the deceptory allure of easy money often leads to dire consequences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deceptory>