

DECESSION

Meaning: Decection: a formal decision or resolution made by a committee or governing body.

1. The decection of the committee was met with mixed reactions from the community.
2. After much debate, the board finally reached a decection that aligned with their long-term goals.
3. In her speech, she emphasized the importance of transparency in the decection-making process.
4. The unexpected decection regarding the funding led to a re-evaluation of the project's timeline.
5. His careful consideration during the decection proved crucial for the team's success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decection>