

DECHRISTIANIZE

Meaning: To dechristianize means to reduce or eliminate the influence of Christianity in a society or community, often through the promotion of secular beliefs and practices.

1. The government sought to dechristianize the nation by promoting secular ideologies in schools.
2. Efforts to dechristianize the community faced significant resistance from local religious groups.
3. Historians debate the extent to which the revolution aimed to dechristianize society and reshape cultural values.
4. Art and literature often reflect the struggle to dechristianize traditions that have been deeply rooted for centuries.
5. The movement to dechristianize public spaces has sparked discussions about the role of religion in modern society.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dechristianize>