

DECLARABLE

Meaning: Declarable: capable of being officially declared or reported, particularly in relation to assets or expenses under regulatory requirements.

1. The assets acquired during the partnership were considered declarable under the new tax regulations.
2. For the project to receive funding, all expenses must be fully declarable and justified.
3. In the meeting, the accountant emphasized the importance of keeping accurate records of all declarable income.
4. The organization is committed to transparency by ensuring that all donations are declarable to the public.
5. During the audit, the team discovered several items that were mistakenly not listed as declarable expenses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/declarable>