

DECLARATIVELY

Meaning: In a manner that clearly and assertively states information or feelings, leaving no ambiguity.

1. She expressed her feelings declaratively, leaving no room for misunderstanding.
2. The scientist presented the findings declaratively, emphasizing their significance to the audience.
3. In his speech, he stated the facts declaratively, ensuring everyone grasped the urgency of the situation.
4. When asked about her plans, she responded declaratively, outlining her intentions clearly.
5. The teacher encouraged students to articulate their opinions declaratively to foster open discussion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/declaratively>