

DECLAREMENT

Meaning: Declarement: the formal announcement or declaration of a policy, decision, or statement.

1. The declarement of the new policy sparked a heated debate among the stakeholders.
2. In her speech, she made a bold declarement about the necessary changes in the education system.
3. The declarement of the winner was met with cheers and applause from the audience.
4. His declarement of intent to run for office surprised many in the political community.
5. The ceremonial declarement of the festival's opening attracted visitors from across the region.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/declarement>