

DECLINATION

Meaning: Declination is the angular distance of a celestial object north or south of the celestial equator, used to determine its position in the sky.

1. The declination of the star allows astronomers to pinpoint its location in the night sky.
2. As the declination of the sun changes throughout the year, it affects the length of daylight hours.
3. In navigation, understanding the declination of magnetic north is crucial for accurate compass readings.
4. The artist's declination from traditional styles led to the creation of a unique and innovative body of work.
5. Her declination to accept the promotion surprised her colleagues, who expected her to embrace the opportunity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/declination>