

DECLINOUS

Meaning: Declinous: having a downward or drooping orientation, often referring to branches or vines that hang low.

1. The declinous branches of the tree hung low, providing a perfect canopy for the picnic below.
2. In the garden, the declinous vines intertwined with the trellis, creating a natural tapestry of green.
3. The artist captured the beauty of the declinous landscape in her latest painting, emphasizing the gentle slopes.
4. As the sun set, the declinous hills were bathed in warm golden light, casting long shadows across the valley.
5. The botanist noted the declinous growth pattern of the plants in this region, suggesting a unique adaptation to the environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/declinous>