

DECOCTURE

Meaning: Decocture: a concentrated liquid extract made by boiling herbs or other substances in water to enhance flavor or medicinal properties.

1. The chef decided to decocture the herbs to enhance the flavor of the broth.
2. After a long simmer, the decocture revealed a rich, complex aroma that filled the kitchen.
3. In herbal medicine, it is essential to decocture roots for a potent and effective remedy.
4. To create the perfect tea, one must know how to properly decocture the selected ingredients.
5. She learned that the key to a successful decocture is balancing the boiling time and temperature.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decocture>