

DECOLLATING

Meaning: Decollating refers to the process of separating or removing sheets from a stack, often to organize or prepare them for use.

1. Decollating the stack of papers made it easier to organize them for the meeting.
2. The printer had a separate function for decollating, which saved us a lot of time.
3. After decollating the sheets, she carefully arranged them into neat piles.
4. In the printing industry, decollating is an essential step in preparing documents for distribution.
5. He was responsible for decollating the flyers before they were handed out to the attendees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decollating>