

DECOLORATION

Meaning: Decoloration refers to the process or result of losing color or vibrancy, often due to environmental factors such as light or moisture.

1. The artist's work underwent significant decoloration due to prolonged exposure to sunlight.
2. After the heavy rain, the vibrant flowers showed signs of decoloration, losing their bright hues.
3. The scientist studied the decoloration of the dye as it reacted with the chemical solution.
4. In the world of fashion, decoloration has become a trendy technique to achieve a vintage look.
5. The old photograph suffered from decoloration over the years, fading the once-clear images.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decoloration>