

DECOMPOSED

Meaning: Decomposed: broken down into simpler organic matter through natural processes, typically involving decay.

1. The fallen leaves slowly decomposed into rich, dark soil over the winter months.
2. After a few days, the fruit had completely decomposed, leaving only a sweet smell behind.
3. Scientists studied how different microorganisms decomposed organic matter in the lab.
4. The body was found in a state of being decomposed, making identification difficult.
5. As the dead plant decomposed, it released nutrients that nourished the surrounding flora.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decomposed>