

DECORUM

Meaning: Decorum refers to behavior that is socially acceptable and proper in a given situation, particularly in formal settings.

1. Maintaining decorum during the formal dinner was essential for the success of the event.
2. His lack of decorum at the meeting surprised everyone, as he usually conducted himself with great professionalism.
3. The students were reminded to observe proper decorum while attending the graduation ceremony.
4. In times of disagreement, she always managed to uphold a sense of decorum that impressed her colleagues.
5. Even in casual settings, he valued decorum, believing it reflected one's character and upbringing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decorum>