

DECOY-DUCK

Meaning: A decoy-duck is an artificial duck used by hunters to attract real ducks for the purpose of hunting.

1. The hunter set up a decoy-duck on the pond to attract the real birds.
2. During the migration season, a decoy-duck can be an effective tool for waterfowl hunters.
3. He painted the decoy-duck in vibrant colors to make it look as realistic as possible.
4. After a long day of hunting, he realized that the decoy-duck had drawn in more ducks than he expected.
5. In the early morning light, the decoy-duck floated serenely among the reeds, fooling the unsuspecting birds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decoy-duck>