

DECOY-MAN

Meaning: A decoy-man is a person who uses tactics or strategies to attract or mislead others, often for the purpose of trapping or distracting.

1. The decoy-man expertly lured the unsuspecting birds into the trap.
2. In the elaborate heist, the decoy-man played a crucial role in distracting the guards.
3. Everyone was amazed at how the decoy-man managed to mimic the real target so effectively.
4. During the game, the decoy-man led the opponent away from the true objective.
5. The detective suspected that the decoy-man was part of a larger scheme to mislead the investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decoy-man>