

DECOY

Meaning: Decoy: a model or imitation used to attract animals or distract attention from an intended target.

1. The hunters used a realistic decoy to attract waterfowl to their pond.
2. In the movie, the hero set a decoy to distract the villains while he made his escape.
3. The cat played with a feathered decoy, pouncing on it as if it were a real bird.
4. Researchers often employ decoys in experiments to study animal behavior in the wild.
5. The magician's trick involved a clever decoy that misled the audience about how the illusion was performed.
6. The hunter used a decoy to attract the ducks to his blind.
7. In the movie, the protagonist set a decoy to mislead his pursuers.
8. The bright colors of the decoy successfully lured in the unsuspecting fish.
9. During the game, the team employed a decoy strategy to confuse their opponents.
10. She realized the email was a decoy meant to distract her from the real issue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decoy>