

DECOYER

Meaning: Decoyer (noun): A device or tactic used to lure or attract someone or something, often for the purpose of hunting or strategic advantage.

1. The skilled hunter used a decoyer to attract the unsuspecting birds closer.
2. As part of their strategy, the team decided to decoyer the opposing players with a clever feint.
3. The artist created a beautifully crafted decoyer that resembled the real object perfectly.
4. In the world of espionage, a decoyer can make the difference between success and failure of a mission.
5. To catch the elusive fish, they employed a decoyer that mimicked the prey's movements in the water.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decoyer>