

DECRETION

Meaning: Discretion is the quality of exercising careful judgment or the freedom to make decisions within certain limits.

1. The judge exercised great discretion in deciding the appropriate sentence for the defendant.
2. She chose to speak with discretion, ensuring that her words did not offend anyone present.
3. In matters of personal finance, it's wise to act with discretion to avoid unnecessary risks.
4. Discretion is often required in confidential situations where sensitive information is involved.
5. The manager had the discretion to approve the project budget without seeking further approval.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decretion>