

DECRETORILY

Meaning: Decretorily: in a manner that is authoritative and leaves no room for discussion or dissent.

1. The judge spoke decretorily, leaving no room for debate.
2. In their meeting, the board decided to act decretorily, enforcing the new policy immediately.
3. She addressed the issue decretorily, making it clear that her decision was final.
4. The principal issued a decretorily written notice to all staff regarding the upcoming changes.
5. During the presentation, the scientist presented the findings decretorily, underscoring their importance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decretorily>