

DECRETORY

Meaning: Decretory refers to an authoritative or commanding order or resolution that requires compliance or action from those it addresses.

1. The judge issued a decretory order that mandated immediate compliance from both parties.
2. In the corporate world, a decretory resolution can significantly alter the direction of a business.
3. The committee's decretory decision on the policy change was met with mixed reactions from the staff.
4. Her speech included a decretory statement regarding the importance of ethical practices in business.
5. The government's decretory law aimed to address the urgent environmental concerns raised by scientists.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decretory>