

DECREW

Meaning: DECREW (verb): to remove the crew from a ship or vessel, typically for safety or operational reasons.

1. The captain had to decrew the vessel due to the approaching storm.
2. After the incident, the company decided to decrew the entire team for safety reasons.
3. They were forced to decrew the ship early because of mechanical issues.
4. The decision to decrew was met with mixed reactions from the crew members.
5. In an unexpected turn of events, the management had to decrew the expedition team before they set sail.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decrew>