

DECRIAL

Meaning: Decrial: a strong expression of disapproval or condemnation.

1. The community's decrial of the proposed development plan was loud and clear.
2. In his speech, he expressed a decrial of the injustices faced by marginalized groups.
3. Her decrial of the company's unethical practices gained significant media attention.
4. The writer's decrial of censorship sparked a heated debate among the attendees.
5. Despite the decrial from critics, the film managed to achieve commercial success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decrial>