

DECROWN

Meaning: To remove a king or monarch from their royal position or status.

1. The king was decrowned in a shocking turn of events during the revolution.
2. Historians debated whether the decision to decrown the monarch was justified.
3. In the play, the protagonist's betrayal ultimately led to the decrowning of the once-beloved ruler.
4. The council decided to decrown the leader after evidence of corruption surfaced.
5. With the decrowning of the queen, a new era began for the kingdom.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decrown>