

DECURSIVE

Meaning: Decursive refers to a style or arrangement that is flowing and connected, often used to describe handwriting or leaves that extend downward along a stem.

1. The term 'decursive' is often used in the context of handwriting to describe a flowing, connected style.
2. In botany, decursive leaves can be found that appear to grow down along the stem.
3. The artist's decursive lines created a sense of movement and fluidity in the painting.
4. In linguistics, a decursive approach can help clarify complex structures in a text.
5. The architect preferred a decursive design that seamlessly blended with the natural landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decursive>