

DECURSIVELY

Meaning: Decursively refers to a manner of arrangement or writing that follows a curving or flowing pattern, often creating a sense of movement or grace.

1. The artist arranged the flowers decursively, creating a stunning visual flow.
2. In her handwriting, the letters slanted decursively, adding a personal touch to the note.
3. The vine climbed the trellis decursively, weaving in and out of the latticework.
4. He explained the concept of decursively structured arguments in his philosophy class.
5. As the river meandered decursively through the valley, it created beautiful landscapes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/decursively>