

DEDECORATE

Meaning: Dedecorate: to remove decorations or adornments from a space to restore its original or a simpler appearance.

1. After the holidays, we need to dedecorate the living room to return it to its usual style.
2. She decided to dedecorate her office space for a more minimalist look.
3. It's time to dedecorate the party venue now that the event has come to an end.
4. They planned a weekend to dedecorate the children's playroom and refresh its appearance.
5. As the seasons change, we often dedecorate our home to reflect the new atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dedecorate>