

DEDUCIBLY

Meaning: DEDUCIBLY: In a manner that can be logically inferred or concluded based on evidence or reasoning.

1. The expenses were deducibly linked to his business operations.
2. Her income was deducibly lower due to the part-time nature of her job.
3. The findings were deducibly relevant to the ongoing research project.
4. It was deducibly clear that the data supported the original hypothesis.
5. Their arguments were deducibly flawed, leading to a reevaluation of the conclusions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deducibly>