

DEDUCTIVE

Meaning: Deductive refers to a method of reasoning that involves drawing specific conclusions from general principles or premises.

1. The detective's deductive reasoning led him to solve the mystery quickly.
2. In mathematics, deductive reasoning is crucial for proving theorems.
3. Her deductive approach helped her uncover the underlying patterns in the data.
4. The philosophy class focused on the principles of deductive logic and its applications.
5. Using deductive methods, the scientist formulated a hypothesis based on existing theories.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deductive>