

DEDUCTIVELY

Meaning: Deductively: in a manner that involves reasoning from general principles to specific conclusions or facts.

1. The detective approached the case deductively, piecing together clues to uncover the truth.
2. In her thesis, she argued that historical events can be understood deductively through the analysis of available evidence.
3. The scientist formulated her hypothesis deductively, ensuring each step followed logically from the last.
4. By thinking deductively, he was able to eliminate unlikely scenarios and focus on the most plausible explanations.
5. The mathematician presented her proof deductively, starting from established axioms and building towards the conclusion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deductively>