

DEEP

Meaning: Deep: extending far down from the surface or high in intensity; profound.

1. The ocean is home to many creatures that thrive in deep waters.
2. She took a deep breath before stepping onto the stage to give her speech.
3. The forest was so dense that the sunlight barely penetrated the deep canopy.
4. His voice took on a deep tone that commanded everyone's attention.
5. They explored the deep caves, marveling at the stalactites hanging from the ceiling.
6. The ocean is known for its deep blue waters that seem to stretch endlessly.
7. She took a deep breath before stepping onto the stage to deliver her speech.
8. His deep understanding of the subject impressed both his peers and professors.
9. The valley was filled with deep shadows as the sun began to set behind the mountains.
10. They shared a deep connection that transcended their differences and brought them closer together.
11. The ocean is incredibly deep, holding mysteries yet to be discovered.
12. His voice was deep and resonant, commanding attention in the crowded room.
13. They found a deep connection through their shared experiences and values.
14. The valley was surrounded by deep cliffs that seemed to touch the sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deep>