

DEFAULT

Meaning: Default (verb): to fail to meet or fulfill a legal obligation or requirement.

1. The court ruled that the defendant would default on the charges due to lack of evidence.
2. In the event that the company fails to default its obligations, it may face severe penalties.
3. The artist decided to default the project rather than compromise on her vision.
4. After much discussion, they agreed to default the contract to pursue better opportunities.
5. The team was forced to default their plans when unexpected circumstances arose.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/default>