

DEFALK

Meaning: Defalk (verb): To misappropriate or embezzle funds from an organization or account.

1. The accountant was accused of defalking funds from the company's accounts.
2. After an internal audit, it was discovered that the manager had been defalking money for years.
3. To prevent defalking, the organization implemented stricter financial controls.
4. The board members were shocked to learn about the defalking that had occurred under their watch.
5. She felt a sense of betrayal upon discovering that her trusted colleague had been defalking their shared resources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defalk>