

DEFAMATORY

Meaning: Defamatory refers to statements or remarks that falsely harm someone's reputation or character.

1. The article contained several defamatory statements that harmed the politician's reputation.
2. She was careful not to make any defamatory remarks during the interview to avoid legal repercussions.
3. The lawsuit claimed that the social media post was both false and defamatory, damaging the individual's career.
4. Defamatory comments in public forums can lead to serious consequences for the person making them.
5. He was advised to retract his defamatory claims to prevent further escalation of the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defamatory>