

DEFAMINGLY

Meaning: Defamingly: in a manner that harms someone's reputation by making false or unjustified statements.

1. The article was written defamingly, casting doubt on her character without any concrete evidence.
2. He spoke defamingly about his former colleague, hoping to tarnish her reputation in the industry.
3. The politician's remarks were deemed defamingly offensive, leading to widespread backlash from the public.
4. She was hurt by the defamingly false statements made about her on social media.
5. The documentary presented the events defamingly, focusing solely on the negative aspects of his actions.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defamingly>