

DEFAMOUS

Meaning: Defamous (verb): To damage someone's reputation by spreading false or misleading information.

1. The article sought to defamous the politician by spreading unfounded rumors.
2. Efforts to defamous the celebrity only seemed to boost their popularity among fans.
3. It is illegal to defamous someone in a way that can damage their reputation or livelihood.
4. The court ruled that the statements made were intended to defamous the author unjustly.
5. Her goal was not to defamous her opponent but to highlight their questionable actions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defamous>