

DEFAULT

Meaning: DEFAULT: A pre-set condition or state that is automatically applied when no alternative is specified, or a failure to fulfill an obligation, such as a payment.

1. The software will automatically revert to its default settings if no changes are saved.
2. In the event of a late payment, the account will be set to default status, leading to additional fees.
3. Choosing the default option can save time, but it may not always meet your specific needs.
4. He was shocked to discover that the system had defaulted to a less secure password.
5. When no alternative is provided, the default choice often becomes the most popular decision.
6. The software will revert to its default settings if no changes are saved.
7. By choosing not to respond, he effectively set a default for how the situation would be handled.
8. Many devices come with a default password that users are encouraged to change for security reasons.
9. In the event of a payment default, the lender may initiate collection procedures.
10. The default option for the application is to enable notifications, but users can customize their preferences.
11. If you don't select a different option, the system will revert to the default settings.
12. Many users were frustrated when the app crashed and reverted to its default state.
13. The default choice in this survey is designed to simplify the decision-making process.
14. In finance, default refers to the failure to fulfill a debt obligation.
15. The website's design was attractive, but the default color scheme was too bright for my taste.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/default>