DEFENSATIVE

Meaning: Defensative: characterized by a strategy or approach aimed at protecting or maintaining an advantage in a competitive situation.

1. The coach emphasized a defensative strategy to protect their lead in the final minutes of the game.

2. Her defensative approach to negotiations ensured that they maintained control over the important terms.

3. In the face of criticism, his defensative remarks only served to deepen the divide among the team members.

4. The defensative stance adopted by the committee helped to prevent any potential backlash from stakeholders.

5. During the debate, she remained defensative, focusing on justifying her position rather than engaging with opposing views.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defensative