

DEFENSIBILITY

Meaning: Defensibility refers to the ability to justify or support a position, claim, or argument against challenges or attacks.

1. The defensibility of the company's position in the market was challenged by new competitors.
2. In a legal context, the defensibility of a claim relies heavily on the evidence presented.
3. Investors often evaluate the defensibility of a startup's business model before committing their funds.
4. The researchers emphasized the importance of defensibility in their proposed environmental policies.
5. Strong intellectual property protections enhance the defensibility of innovative technologies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defensibility>