

DEFENSIBLE

Meaning: Defensible: capable of being justified or supported with evidence or reasoning.

1. The lawyer presented a defensible argument that swayed the jury.
2. In academic circles, the theory is considered defensible given the available evidence.
3. The company's actions were not defensible in light of recent regulations.
4. She believed her position was defensible and welcomed questions from the panel.
5. Finding a defensible solution to the conflict required careful negotiation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defensible>