

DEFENSOR

Meaning: Defensor: a person, often an attorney, who advocates for or defends another, particularly in legal contexts or on behalf of those unable to defend themselves.

1. The attorney served as a defensor for the accused, ensuring their rights were protected throughout the trial.
2. In ancient Rome, a defensor was appointed to advocate for those unable to defend themselves.
3. Her passion for social justice led her to become a defensor of marginalized communities.
4. The defensor's eloquent arguments swayed the jury and changed the course of the trial.
5. He regarded himself as a defensor of freedom, always standing up against oppression and injustice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defensor>