

DEFER

Meaning: To postpone or delay something to a later time or date.

1. She decided to defer her vacation plans until after the busy season at work.
2. The committee chose to defer the decision until they had more information.
3. He agreed to defer payment on the loan until he secured a stable job.
4. In some cases, students can defer their enrollment to the following semester.
5. The team opted to defer the project deadline to ensure higher quality results.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defer>