

DEFERENTIALLY

Meaning: Deferentially: in a manner that shows respect and submission to the opinions or authority of others.

1. She spoke deferentially to her elders, showing the respect they deserved.
2. The students listened deferentially to the guest speaker, eager to absorb his wisdom.
3. In the meeting, he addressed his colleagues deferentially, acknowledging their experience and insights.
4. The assistant handled the situation deferentially, ensuring that the manager's authority was upheld.
5. During the interview, she answered deferentially, mindful of the interviewer's position and expertise.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deferentially>