

DEFERRER

Meaning: Deferrer (noun): a person who postpones or delays an event or action.

1. The deferrer decided to postpone the meeting until everyone could be present.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the deferrer requested to delay their trial by several months.
3. As a skilled deferrer, she always weighed the pros and cons before making a commitment.
4. The deferrer of decisions often found themselves burdened with the weight of uncertainty.
5. His role as a deferrer helped the team to carefully consider their options before acting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deferrer>