

DEFIBRINATE

Meaning: Defibrinate (verb): to remove fibrin from a blood sample or plasma, typically to prevent clotting and ensure accurate analysis.

1. Defibrinate the blood sample to ensure accurate results during the analysis.
2. The lab technician will defibrinate the plasma before conducting the experiment.
3. To study the effects of the drug, we need to defibrinate the collected blood.
4. It is essential to defibrinate the coagulated blood to prevent any interference in the tests.
5. Researchers decided to defibrinate the blood to facilitate better flow in the study.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defibrinate>