

DEFIBRINIZE

Meaning: Defibrinize: to remove fibrin from blood or plasma, typically to prepare it for analysis or testing.

1. The laboratory technician worked diligently to defibrinize the blood samples for further analysis.
2. To ensure accurate test results, it is crucial to defibrinize the plasma before conducting the experiment.
3. Doctors often need to defibrinize collected blood to prevent clotting during transfusions.
4. The process to defibrinize the blood involved using a specific anticoagulant that effectively removed fibrin.
5. After the blood was defibrinized, the researchers noted a significant improvement in the quality of the data collected.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defibrinize>