

DEFICIT

Meaning: Deficit: a shortfall or lack of something, particularly in financial terms, where expenditures exceed revenues or resources.

1. The country is facing a significant budget deficit that could impact social services.
2. After reviewing the financial statements, the accountant noted a surprising deficit in the revenue projections.
3. The athlete was diagnosed with a vitamin D deficit, prompting dietary changes to improve her health.
4. To address the skills deficit in the workforce, the government implemented new training programs.
5. The charity's fundraising efforts fell short, resulting in a deficit that hindered its ability to support local families.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deficit>