

DEFIGURATION

Meaning: Defiguration refers to the act or process of altering or distorting the appearance of something, often in a way that challenges conventional standards of beauty or form.

1. The artist's latest work explores the theme of defiguration, challenging traditional notions of beauty.
2. In a shocking turn of events, the defiguration of the statue sparked a heated debate in the community.
3. Her defiguration after the accident left her feeling unrecognizable to herself and others.
4. The film's portrayal of defiguration raises questions about identity and societal standards.
5. Critics praised the novel for its vivid depiction of defiguration and its emotional impact on the characters.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defiguration>