

DEFIGURE

Meaning: To defigure means to distort or ruin the appearance or integrity of something.

1. He felt that the harsh criticism would only serve to defigure his artistic vision.
2. The storm threatened to defigure the once pristine landscape, leaving chaos in its wake.
3. In an attempt to defigure the truth, the politician twisted the facts during his speech.
4. Her careless remarks could defigure their long-standing friendship if she wasn't careful.
5. The sculptor was determined not to defigure the marble, aiming for perfection in every detail.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defigure>