

DEFILADING

Meaning: Defilading is the act of providing shelter or protection from enemy fire by using natural or artificial cover, such as hills or fortifications.

1. Defilading the troops behind the hill provided them with crucial cover from enemy fire.
2. The engineers worked quickly to create a defilading position for the advancing forces.
3. In military strategy, defilading is essential for minimizing exposure to enemy observation and attack.
4. Proper defilading can significantly improve the chances of survival for soldiers in combat zones.
5. During the exercise, the team practiced techniques for effectively defilading their vehicles from aerial threats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defilading>